We are seeking VOLUNTEERS like YOU, who want to be involved in our community.

The Whitewater Region Public Library is governed under the Ontario Public Libraries Act by board members appointed by township council.

Board meetings take place on the second Tuesday of each month, excluding July, August and December starting at 6:30 pm (we ask that you attend at least 7 meetings).

The Ontario Public Library Act mandates that Board members must be:

- at least 18 years old
- a Canadian citizen
- a resident of Whitewater Region Township
- not employed by the Township

Please note we are also looking to join forces with young adults. We have a position open for a Youth Advisor to join our board. Volunteer hours as a youth advisor will count as required hours of community service as per the graduation requirement in Ontario.*

Outline your interests and experience and your application will be reviewed at the next general council meeting. Contact
Carmen Miller, Clerk, at (613)646-2282 or cmiller@whitewaterregion.ca

If you have any questions or need any guidance you may contact Debbi McLaughlin, CEO at (613)646-7592 or
